

Resource Center Gears Up for 2001 Activities

This early, several activities have already been lined-up by the CBCRM Resource Center and its field-based Anda CBCRM Program in Pangasinan for the promotion of learning in CBCRM.

Anda CBCRM program to Hold Summer Youth Camp in April

In commemoration of the World Earth Day Celebration for this year, the Anda CBCRM Program is preparing for a Summer Youth Camp to be held in April 2001.

The Summer Youth Camp will be a week-long affair for high school students in the said municipality. Highlights of the camp include a training on theater skills and a mangrove replanting activity in Brgy. Sablig, the campsite.

On April 23, the participants will be having a performance based on what they learned during the theater training.

The Summer Youth Camp, which will be sponsored by Plan International, will be conducted to enhance the students' appreciation and values for the environment.

STUDENTS DOING THEIR SHARE FOR THE ENVIRONMENT'S CAUSE !

Taken during the International Coastal Clean-Up in Brgy. Sablig, Anda, Pangasinan, September 2000

The Anda CBCRM Program has always encouraged active participation of the local youth sector. Last year, students made up the majority groups that were successfully mobilized to participate in the cleaning-up of garbage along the beaches of Anda in commemoration of the International Coastal Clean-up Day.

Discovering ANDA

This island municipality lies at the Western portion of Lingayen Gulf in the province of Pangasinan. On the west across a narrow body of water known as the Kakiputan Channel is the municipality of Bolinao. The town of Bani is situated south west of Anda, while the town of Alaminos lies directly south.

In the 1800s, Anda, then known as Cabarruyan Island, used to be a barrio of Bolinao, Pangasinan, which was under the jurisdiction of Iba, Zambales. In the Pangasinan language, Anda may mean "to hand over".

The island was discovered by Andres Dela Cruz-Cacho known as Andaes Kulayo but it's present name was in honor of Governor General Simon De Anda.

(source: Anda Municipal Profile)

Anda CBCRMP Commences FRMP in Lingayen Gulf

The Anda Community-Based Coastal Resources Management Program has recently started the implementation of the Fisheries Resource Management Program (FRMP) Community Organizing Component in Lingayen Gulf Cluster 1 (Anda & Bani) in Pangasinan. The FRMP program covers 17 barangays of Anda and 2 more in Bani, Pangasinan.

The contract was signed between the CBCRM Resource Center/ UPSARDFI and the Bureau of Fisheries and Aquatic Resources (BFAR) last December while the notice to proceed was given on January 15, 2001.

Resource Center to Conduct Forum on Population and CBCRM

A public forum on population issues and CBCRM will be held on March 29, 2001 in cooperation with the PATH Foundation. The forum will touch on reproductive health issues, integrated social services approach and food security. The forum will be held at the Bahay ng Alumni, 2-5 pm.

THE CBCRM LIBRARY

New acquisitions for 2001

Development

Accountable Aid: Local participation in major projects (1999)
by Patricia Feeney

Activists Beyond Borders-Advocacy networks in international politics (1998)
by M. Keck and Kathryn Sikkink

Anthropology, Development and the Post-modern Challenge (1996)
by K. Gardner and David Lewis

The Barefoot Revolution: a report to the club of Rome (1998)
Bertrand Schneider

Beyond Intellectual Property – Toward traditional resources rights for indigenous peoples and local communities (1996)
by Darrell Posey and Graham Dutfield

Big Business, Poor people - the impact of transnational corporations on the world's poor (2000)
by John Madeley

Civil Society and the Aid Industry (2000)
edited by Alison Van Rooy

The Development Dictionary - a guide to knowledge as power (1999)
edited by Wolfgang Sachs

Economic growth with Equity – lessons from East Asia (1998)
by Kevin Watkins

Future Positive: International Co-operation in the 21st century (2000)
by Michael Edwards

Jurema's Children in the Forest of Spirits Healing and ritual among two Brazilian indigenous groups (1997)
by Clarice Da Mota

Networking for Development (1999)
by Paul Starkey

the lighter side of 2000:

CBCRM Resource Pool Fellows, CRMNet members and friends having fun at the Christmas Party!

Anda CBCRM team taking a photo break from their mid-year assessment in Pansol, Laguna

Top left photo: Center's staff pose for a souvenir shot with visitors.

Patrick Christie and Robert Pomeroy were in town this month (January) to discuss with Prof. Ferrer their upcoming project: Integrated Coastal Management Sustainability Project.

(Top right photo)

Tan Chi Kiong of the Ecumenical Coalition on Third World Tourism (ECTWT) visits the Center and shares his thoughts and their organization's activities on